

Face Me

I always underestimate the things I wanna be Apologies will never be my game
Facing the reality
Facing by myself
All 'n all its just another pain
Yeah

Sympathy is never lasting I hunger for revenge Pretending everything will be Pretending everything is going on and on and on and on and on

Face me,
Closer to reality
Closer to the edge
Closer to reality
Closer to myself

Everybody's gaining something
I'm everybody's friend
None of us will ever be the same
I try to run away but dreams are catching me haunting me
forcing me - to go
on and on and on and on and on ...
