

Gali's Tale

The evil Makuta rules the island of Mata Nui. The residents have put their faith in a legend. One day six canisters appeared on the shores containing six mighty warriors. The legendary Toa have arrived. To defeat Makuta, the Toa must find the Great Masks of Power.

In last month's adventure, Lewa met the Turaga Matau, the leader of the Le-Koro village of air. He discovered another Mask of Power, and then came face to face with a mysterious creature...

The Toa of Air

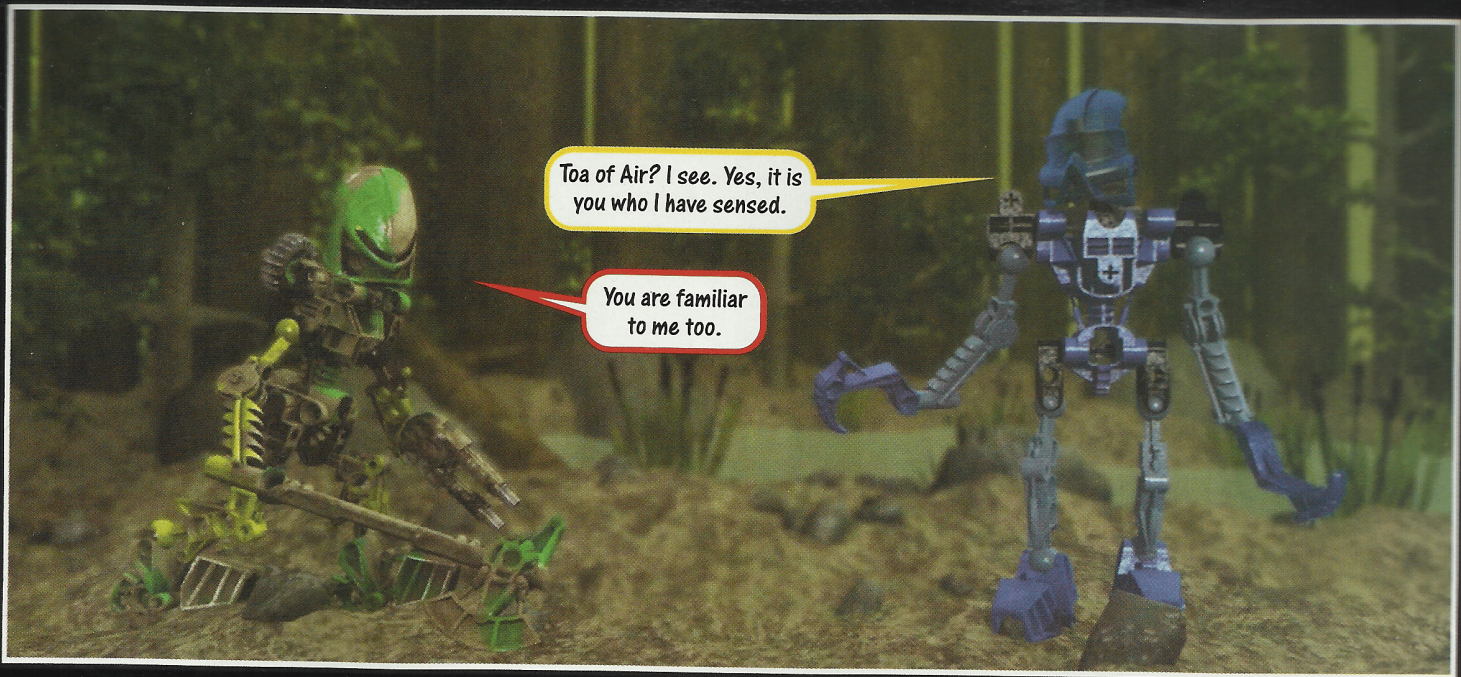

A mysterious figure loomed over Lewa...

Who are you?

Wait! I'm not your enemy!

WHO ARE YOU!!!

I am Lewa, the Toa of Air...I have come to restore peace to the island -

Toa of Air? I see. Yes, it is you who I have sensed.

You are familiar to me too.

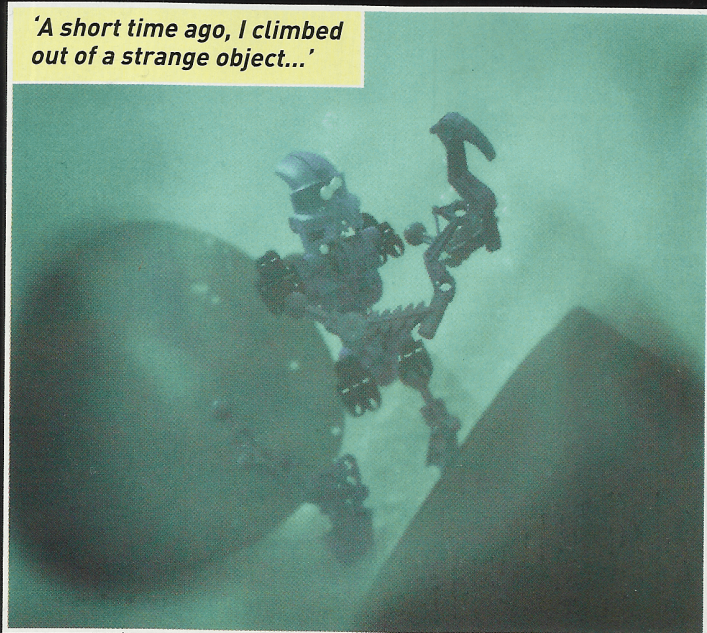

A friend told me there would be others like me.

My name is Gali. I am the Toa of Water.

The legends spoke of these Toa in conflict. Water and wind crash together as storms, then quickly pass once the conflict is over...

How did you come to be here, Gali?

'A short time ago, I climbed out of a strange object...'

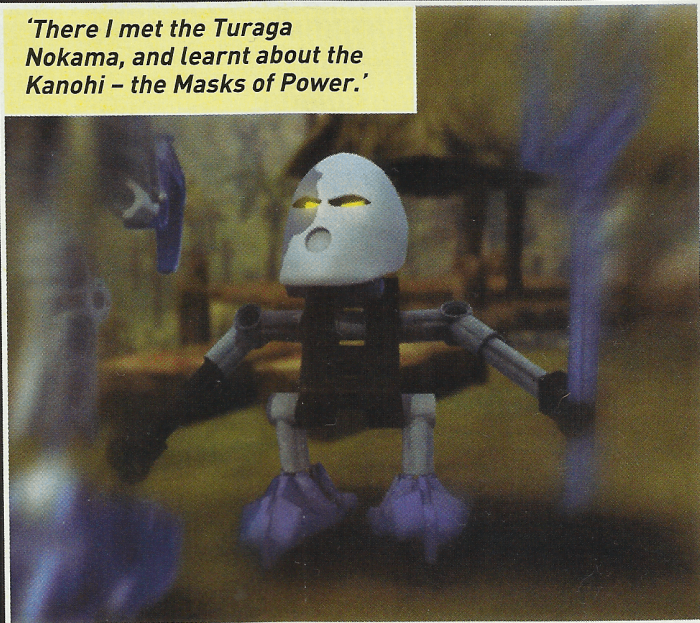

'...a villager called Maku greeted me.'

'He took me to his village of water, Ga-Koro.'

'There I met the Turaga Nokama, and learnt about the Kanohi - the Masks of Power.'

That is like what happened to me!

Did a Kanohi draw you to my lagoon?

Yes, but then I was attacked...

...BY THAT!

With her lightning-fast reactions Gali dodged the Nui-Rama.

Lewa spots a swarm of Nui-Rama about to descend on Gali!

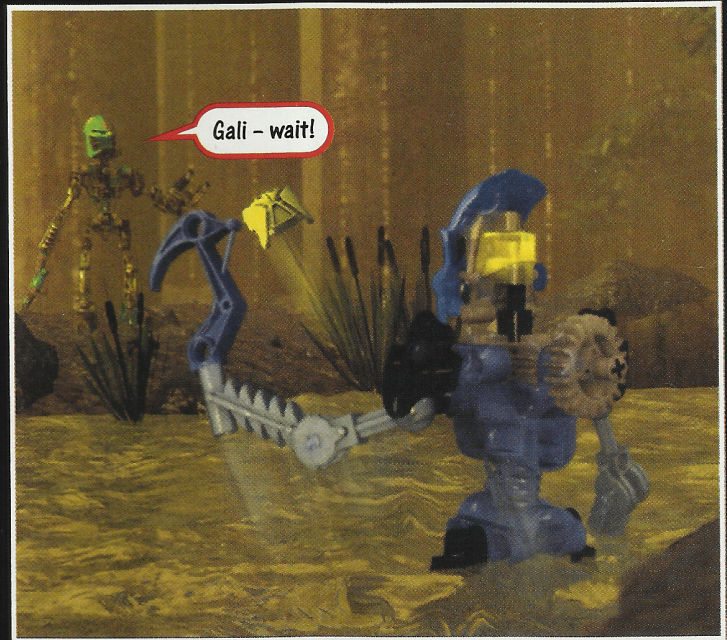

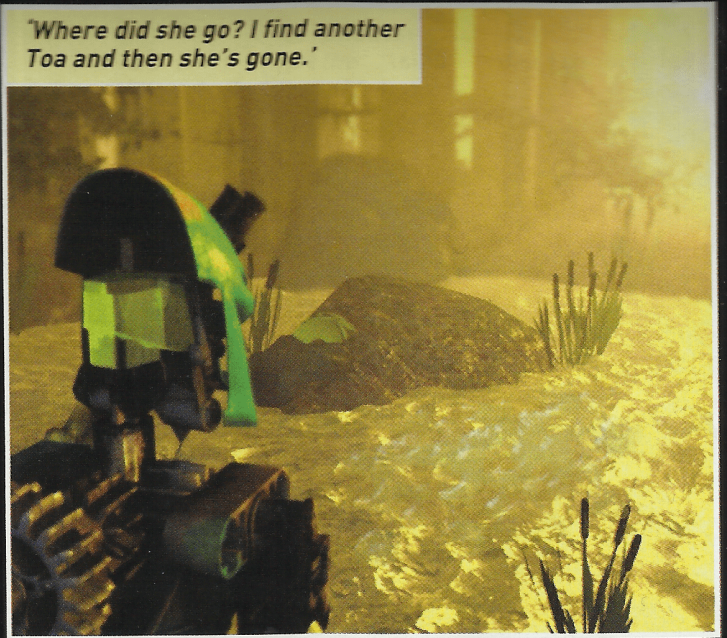

Using his Mask of Levitation, Lewa floated up...with a plan!

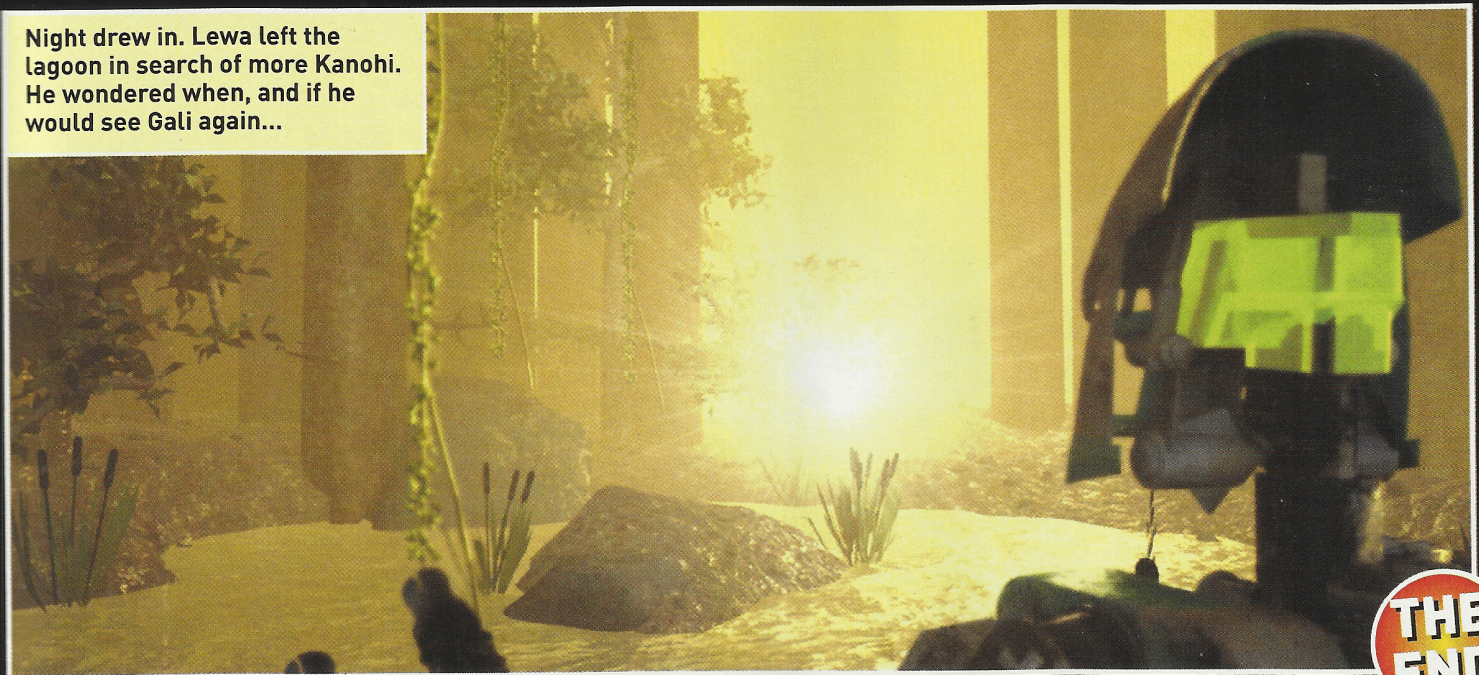

His axe sliced through the branch!

Night drew in. Lewa left the lagoon in search of more Kanohi. He wondered when, and if he would see Gali again...
