

Time Of The Toa

The evil Makuta rules the island of Mata Nui. The residents have put their faith in a legend. One day six canisters appeared on the shores containing six mighty warriors. The legendary Toa have arrived. To defeat Makuta, the Toa must find the Great Masks of Power.

In last month's adventure Tahu was taken to Ta-Koro, the village of fire. Once he had stepped inside he saw that the whole village was about to be destroyed by a huge river of lava! Bravely, Tahu ran up to the tidal wave of fire, which looked like it was about to swallow him up...

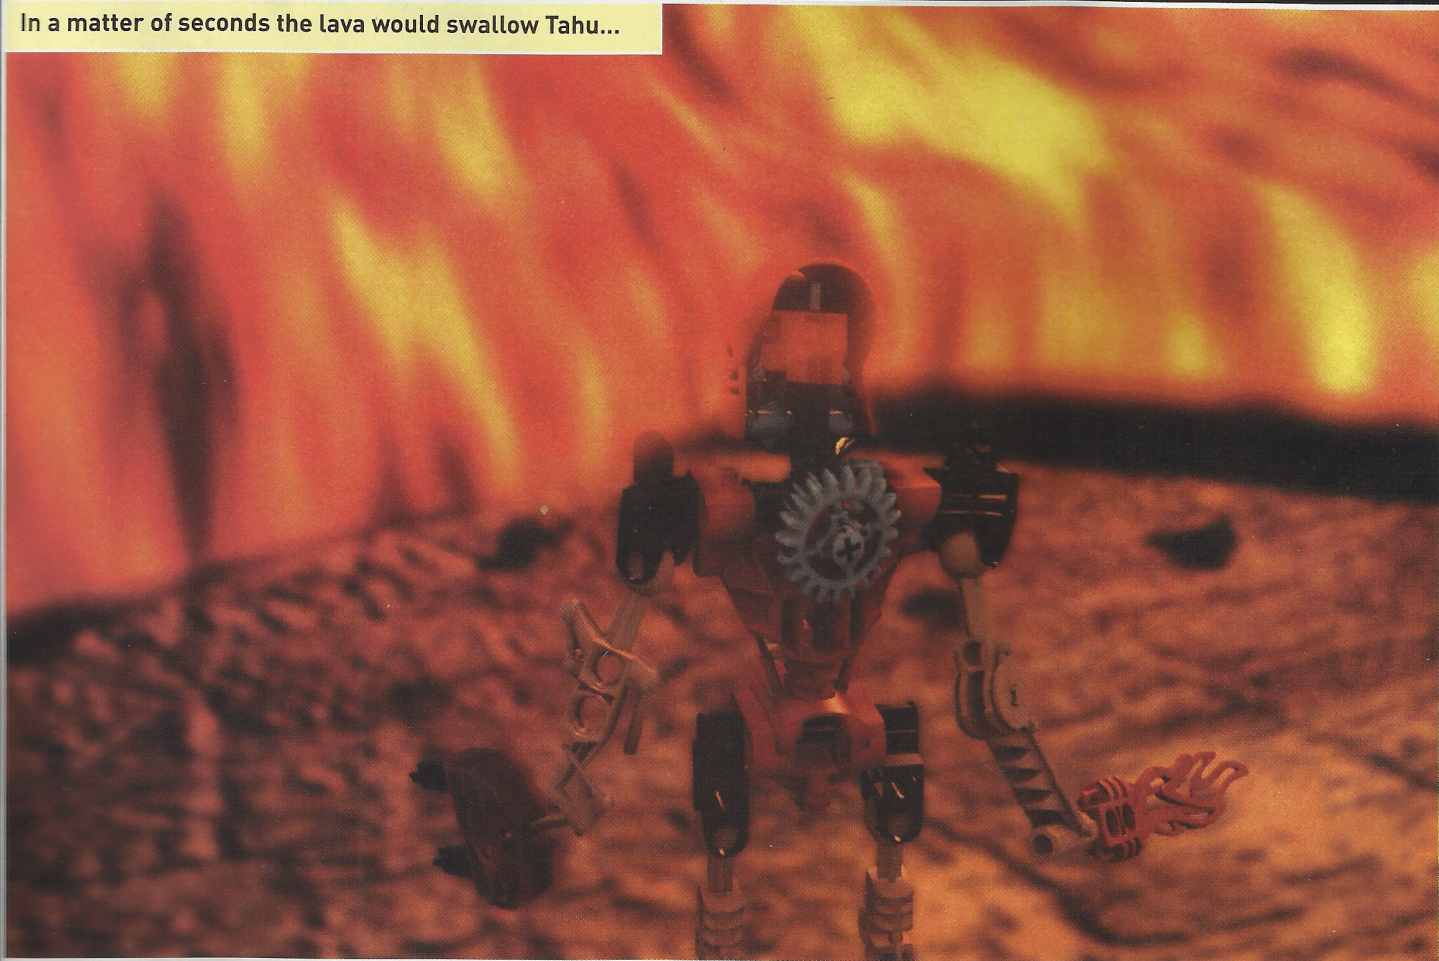

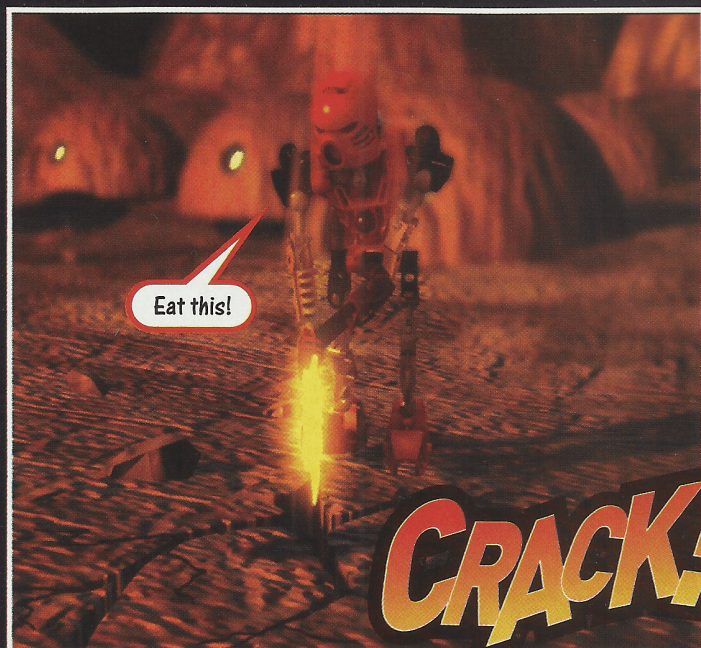

Tahu
The Toa of Fire

Jala
Villager of Ta-Koro

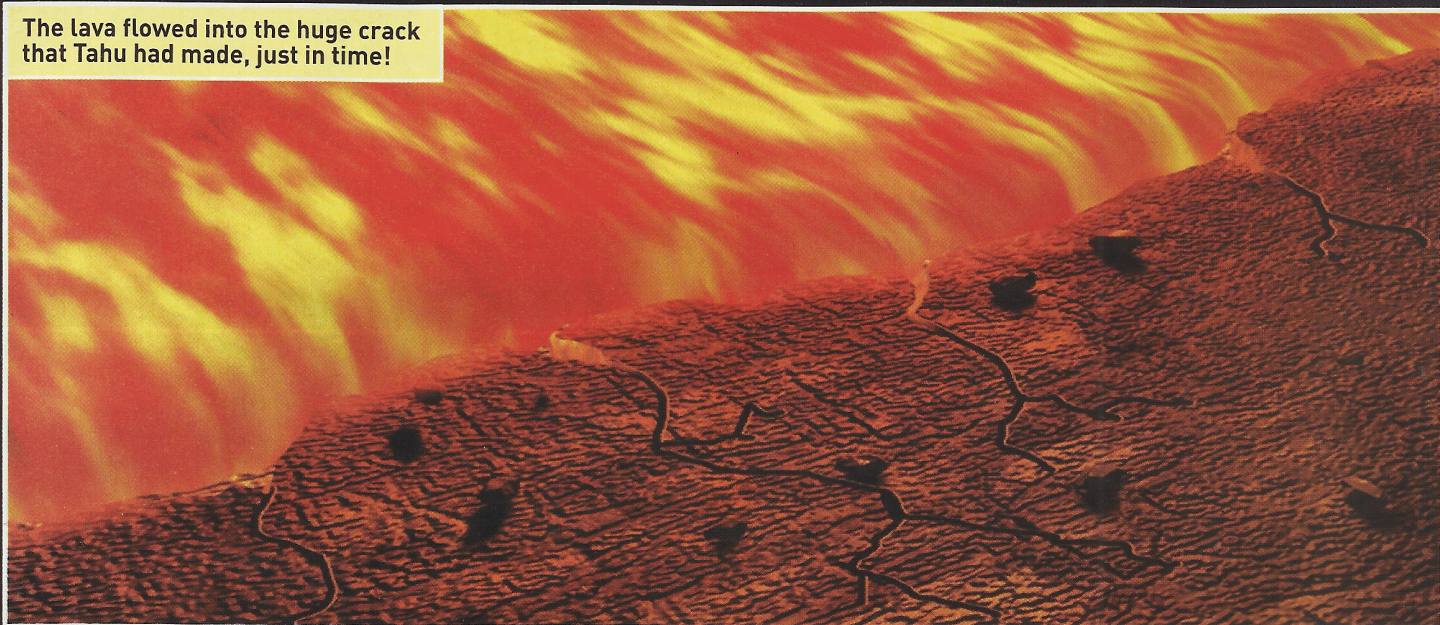

Turaga Vakama
Leader of Ta-Koro

In a matter of seconds the lava would swallow Tahu...

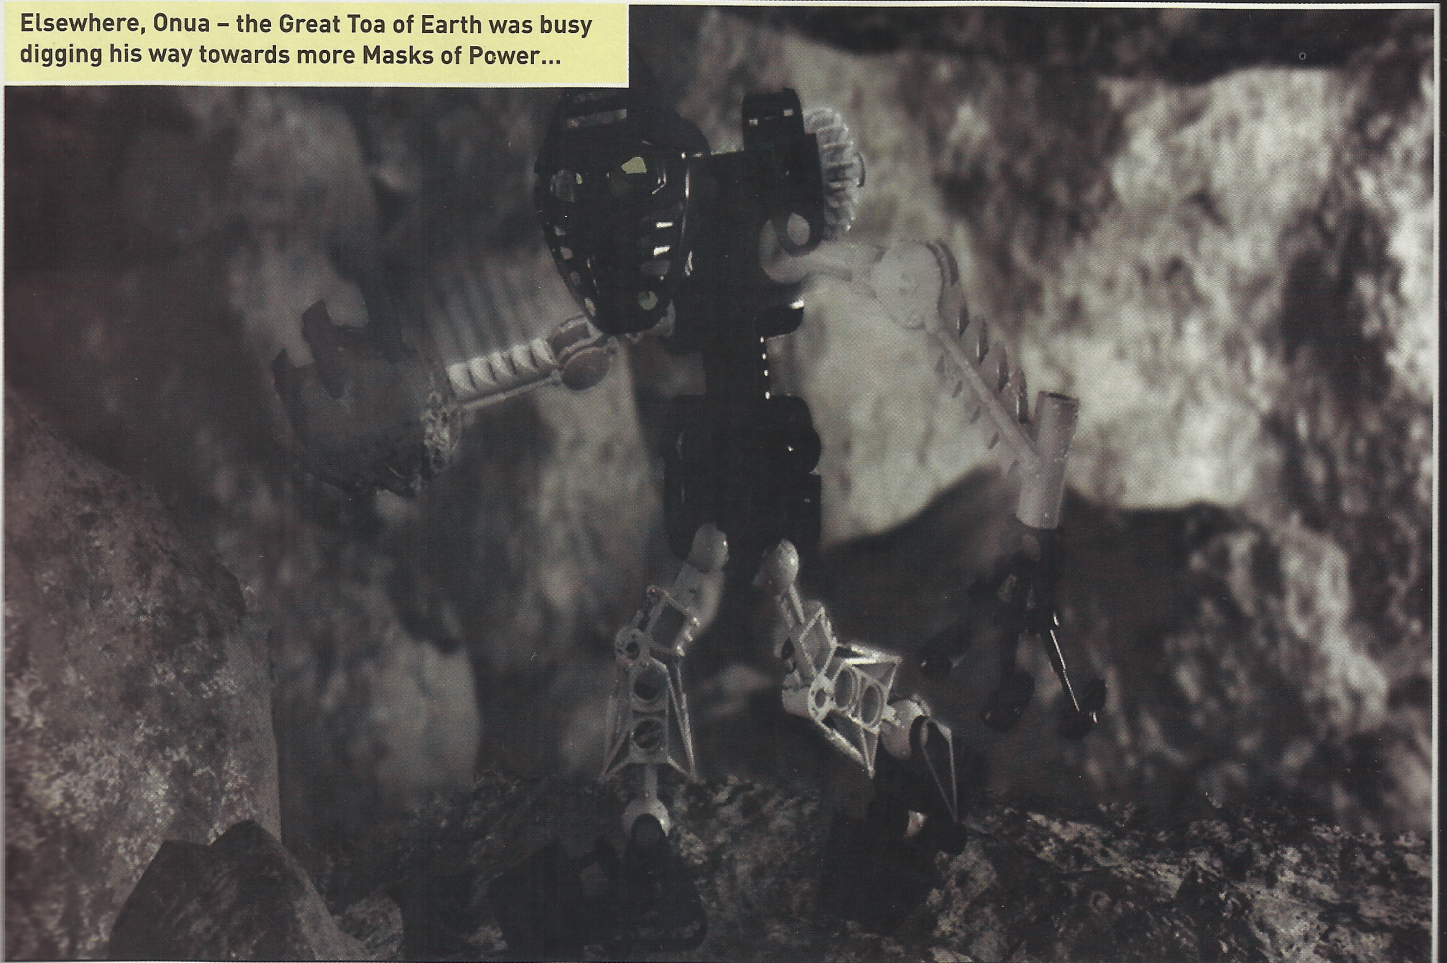

The lava flowed into the huge crack that Tahu had made, just in time!

The Toa of Fire, happier in his hot homeplace went looking for adventure!

Elsewhere, Onua – the Great Toa of Earth was busy digging his way towards more Masks of Power...

West of here, the icy plains whispered the name of Kopaka, as the Toa of Ice rescued one of the villagers...

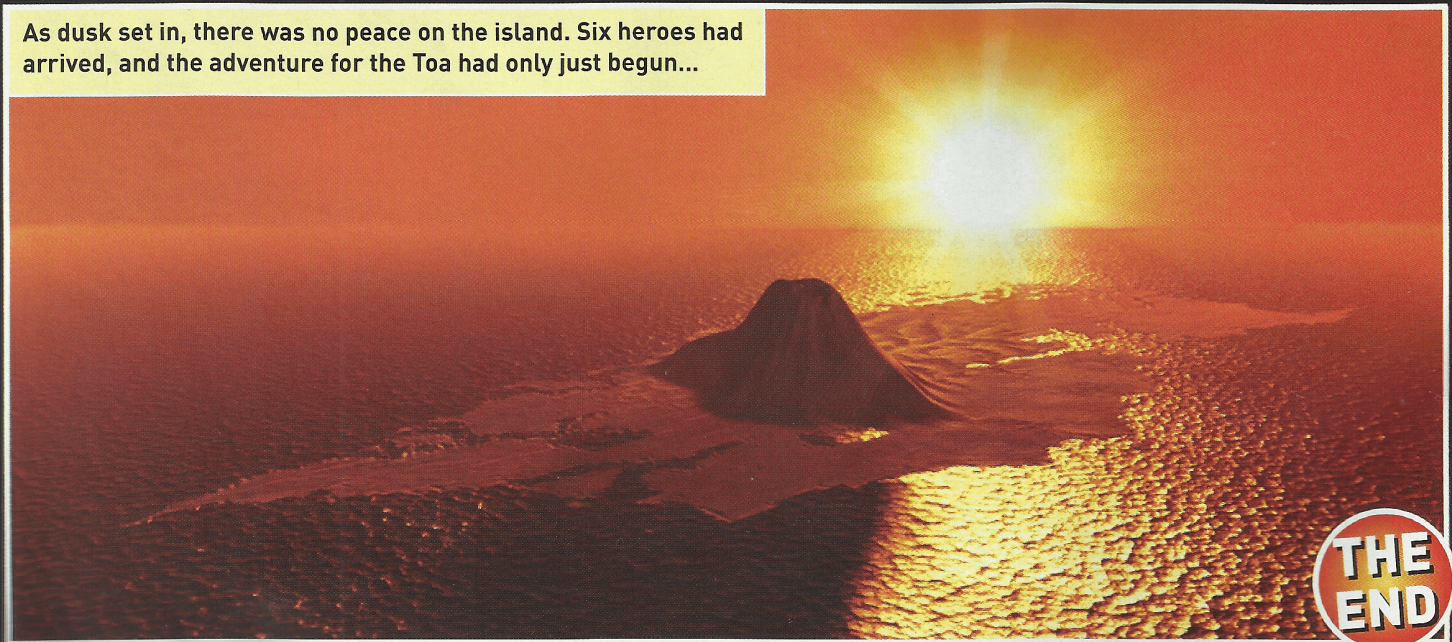

...under the waves, Gali senses an evil nearby...

...and high up in the forest,
Lewa felt that he would meet the rest of the Toa soon...

As dusk set in, there was no peace on the island. Six heroes had arrived, and the adventure for the Toa had only just begun...
